This way or that way? How to approach transitional moments in your life

A few times in your life, you may have asked yourself, “Am I at a crossroad?” It is not always apparent to us when we are in the middle of a transition or headed in that direction, but there are usually signs pointing the way. These signs or factors can be internally or externally driven—or even a combination of the two.:

1. Internal Crossroad: An internal crossroad is when we find ourselves in need of making a change due to a conflict within ourselves.
2. External Crossroad: An external crossroad occurs when we find ourselves in need of making a change due to a factor outside ourselves.
3. Early-Stage Career Crossroads: The early career crossroad is unique because you are at the launching point of your next career.

Be what I call “coachable.” That means honor the mature, responsible people in your life. Trust your gut. Be on the lookout for mentors. You cannot put a clock on your growth. Clarity about your future will likely come more slowly than you want it to. For more information: //https://bit.ly/2RFakig
